Spring 2010

Summer Creek Spring Fling Party Saturday, April 24th

Come out and meet and greet your neighbors! SCHOA is having a Spring Fling on Saturday, April 24, 2010 from 1:00 - 4:00 PM. All SC homeowners/renters are invited. We will have a bouncing ball house for the kids and several grills going, and we will provide hamburgers, hotdogs, veggie burgers, chips, cookies, soda and bottled water. Feel free to bring anything else you would like to grill or share! The event will be located on the corner of 59th Terrace and 41st Lane, which is in the back of Summer Creek (take the last right in the neighborhood and you will see it).

If possible, please RSVP to Darlene.Ryon@summercreekha.com so we can have a rough head count, but don't hesitate to show up even if you didn't RSVP! Here are a few more things to know about the Spring Fling party:

- Please don't leave children under 12 without supervision-- there is an unfenced pond there
- Please curb your dog if you walk them by that corner so we can all enjoy the grassy area
- Feel free to bring chairs, towels to sit on, food, etc.
- There will not be much space to park cars, but the weather should be nice for walking and bikes

Enforcement of Covenants & Restrictions

In March, we began sending notices to homeowners who were in violation of the Covenants and Restrictions of Summer Creek in one way or another. These Covenants and Restrictions are not new, but they have not been actively enforced in the past several years. We thank all those residents who have already corrected their violations, and encourage anyone who has not to do so as quickly as possible to avoid fines. Although this is not the most fun part of our jobs, it is a part of our obligation as a board and is necessary to maintain the standards agreed upon by our neighborhood, which are not extreme and will help maintain the appearance of our community and keep our property values up. To review the full Covenant & Restrictions and the Fine Schedule, please visit our website at www.summertimecreek.com.
